6. Coverage

Students are required to create an inspiring and educational video that explains how FOMO and JOMO influence financial management among youth covering areas such as the following:

a) Awareness of FOMO and JOMO

- Define FOMO and JOMO.
- Explain their relevance to today’s digital spending habits and how they affect youth financially and emotionally.

b) Impact of FOMO on Financial Behaviour

- Highlight how FOMO drives impulsive online shopping, overspending, and social-pressure-driven purchases.
- Explain the risks associated with FOMO, including rising debt, financial anxiety and overuse of “easy” payment options such as Buy Now, Pay Later (BNPL).

c) Benefits of Practising JOMO

- Illustrate how embracing JOMO promotes mindful spending, reduces financial stress, and improved self-control.
- Showcase how redirecting impulse spending toward positive financial habits such as building an emergency fund, regular savings, or long-term investments can help youth benefit from the power of compounding.

d) Practical Financial Tips for Youth

- Provide actionable guidance on managing FOMO and JOMO wisely, for example:
 - Setting personal spending limits

- Prioritising needs over wants
- Avoiding impulsive purchases triggered by social media
- Understanding the true cost behind “easy” digital payment options (BNPL, instalment plans, etc.)

e) Real-Life Scenarios and Examples

- Use relatable, youth-centric scenarios such as resisting the urge to buy the latest gadget or skipping unnecessary flash sales or online promotions.
- Demonstrate how conscious spending choices lead to better financial outcomes, such as achieving savings goals or enhancing long-term financial stability.

7. Video Format

- a) Duration: Between 3 to 5 minutes, including the title.
- b) Format: High-definition MP4 format. The aspect ratio should be 16:9 and a minimum resolution of HD (1920 X 1080 px).
- c) Style: Documentary, narrative (scripted), short drama, animation, or anything suitable to deliver the story on FOMO vs JOMO.

8. Video Requirements

- a) The video can be either in English, Bahasa Melayu, or a mix of both languages.
- b) The submitted video must not be fully generated using Artificial Intelligence (AI). While the use of AI tools may be allowed to support certain aspects of production (e.g. editing or visual enhancement), substantial human creativity, direction, and input must be evident throughout the video.
- c) The video has not been submitted to any other competitions.
- d) All entries must be the students' original works, and no part or component thereof is copied from any other work or material.
- e) The video must not include any endorsements of products or services.
- f) The video must not contain any obscene, violent, racist, religious, political and defamatory content.
- g) Students shall fully bear all costs and expenses for the production of the video and their participation in the Competition.

9. Judging criteria

a) Main Theme Message (40 points)

i. Presentation

Does the video clearly communicate the concepts of FOMO and JOMO, highlight the risks of FOMO-driven impulsive spending, and promote JOMO as a healthier and more mindful financial approach? Does it provide practical tips on responsible digital payments and conscious spending, supported by relatable real-life scenarios that demonstrate how better financial decisions lead to positive outcomes? Does the video present these messages in a cohesive, engaging, and emotionally impactful way to reinforce the importance of smart financial management among youth.

ii. Effectiveness of messages to be conveyed

Can the main message be clearly identified in the video and communicated effectively? Does the message truly leave an impact on the audience and capture their interest?

iii. Making an impact towards change

Does the video create a viewer's desire to make a change, spread the message further, or provide a call to action?

b) Creativity/Originality (30 points)

Videos must be students' work, and may include personal experiences and thoughtful observations. Videos must reflect that students have carefully examined and thought through the topics on 'FOMO vs JOMO'.

i. Originality - uniqueness, and originality of the story.

ii. Creativity - effective use of imagination and creativity.

iii. Plot - actions, events, conflicts, and turning points that propel the story forward. How the story unfolds.

iv. Pacing and Structure - the timing of the action, unfolding of plot elements, character development, and the video's framework.

v. Characters - personalities that are distinctive and compelling. A protagonist and antagonist with clear and active goals.

vi. Entertainment Value - Does the story keep the viewer's attention? Is it fun, engaging, or thought-provoking?

vii. Dialogue – voices that are natural, concise, and unique to each character. Use of language that effectively reveals character and moves the story forward or the lack of dialogue is used effectively.

c) Technical Organisation (30 points)

How well is the video produced in terms of continuity, timing, camera operation, sound quality, editing, and adherence to the time limit of 3 - 5 minutes?

i. Videography - the quality of videography demonstrated in work.

ii. Sound Quality - the dialogues are clear and not hindered by any noise or music score.

iii. Music Score - the music score is suited to the video and helps to tell the story and its characters

10. People's Choice – Most 'Likes'

a) Shortlisted videos will be announced on Financial Education Network (FEN)'s Facebook, TikTok, and YouTube channels.

b) The videos will be ranked based on the number of 'Likes'.
